

Please withdraw the FCC petition that would change Indiana's no-call law. My family has enjoyed the absence of sales and unwanted calls over the last several months. I do look at mail and my e-mails -- but at a time that is good for me. I like having information given to me in a written format and dislike being interrupted in the middle of something by unwanted calls.
Thank you, Catherine Kousari-rad for my entire family